

Oldentales

Missive from your Baron and Baroness unto the Populace of the great Barony of Oldenfeld and all who see these words, do we offer warm greetings in the name of Their Royal Majesties; Summer has come to an end just in time for our beautiful Harvest event and the new event season is begun, even as the southern sea hurls a final great storm in our direction! It is the season where our Meridian neighbors begin to agitate on the border and we hope that everyone remains ever vigilant and ready to share our fun with our friends across the border :-)

We are grateful to the Event Stewards for Harvest, Charles and Aurelia, for their work in securing the new site, setting up, cooking, and running a smooth event that was a great introduction to the SCA for many new members and their families - the most at a single event that we've seen in a while!

As we begin the 2016-17 event season, let us seek out and thank those who volunteer to work as event staff. A moment of your praise, an offer to help, or even to learn what they're doing to one day try it out for yourself can inspire them to grow as a teacher, a mentor, and a volunteer themselves.

After the passing of Hurricane Matthew, enjoy the coming autumn days, catch up on your yard work, and gird yourselves for Panhandle Skirmishes!

Hail Oldenfeld!
Miklos and Marie

Missive From Your Seneschal

Greetings unto the populace and friends of Oldenfeld!

As the fall event season cranks into gear, we will be a very busy Barony! Our next local event will be Harvest, which will be a daytrip event held at Tall Timbers (in northeast Tallahassee) on October 7. The event will be a Harvest Festival, with games of strength, skill, and strategy in which all can take part. There will be plenty of activities for adults and kids, followed by a buffet-style, Oktoberfest-themed feast. I hope to see you there!

We are also running Martinmas Moot/Fall Crown Lyst at Camp La Llanada on the weekend of November 11 – 13. Though La Llanada is quite a drive for us, the camp itself is a wonderful, compact site with many great amenities. If you are willing to assist with the event in any way, please let me know! Duke Ardien will likely need a hand at the reservations desk, we still need someone to lead the sanitation crew, and there are always things that come up at each event that need to be handled. Castlemere is running gate for us, but I'm sure they would appreciate volunteers as well. If you are interested in attending but can't get to the event yourself or just don't want to make the trip alone, check with others for carpool opportunities. Feel free to post carpool offers/requests on the email lists and Oldenfeld Populace Facebook page.

Panhandle Skirmishes is also quickly approaching. It will be at Compass Lake, on the weekend of November 3 – 5. Though the Shire of Flintmarsh is running the event this year, they will likely need and definitely appreciate any assistance we can provide. I've been in touch with the event stewards and will relay information to Oldenfelders as I get it. Reservations are open, so I recommend you check with their reservationist about cabin space sooner than later, as it always sells out in advance of the event.

I am still seeking event bids for local events next year. If you are interested in any aspect of event management, please contact me. Even if you don't have a theme or staff, I may be able to assist in coordinating a complete bid. If you have "outside the box" ideas for an event, I welcome them as well! Even though we are still mourning the loss of Camp Indian Springs, this can be a great opportunity for us to explore new ideas.

Finally, and probably most importantly, the ballots are being mailed from the Kingdom Seneschal. Please make sure to vote and mail your ballots back! There is more information in this edition of Oldentales regarding the voting process including dates by which ballots need to be received by the Kingdom.

And as always, thank you all for your time, participation, and service!

Yours in service to the dream,
#L Aurelia Cassia

The Barony of Oldenfeld's

Harvest Festival

October 1, 2016

Join us in the Land of Big Fun for a day of autumnal festivities as we celebrate the harvest and prepare for the coming of winter!

The swine have been loosed for pannage, but we may require assistance from the populace to help round up some runaways!

Your repayment will be a delicious repast, replete with meats both porcine and fowl.

Activities will include a full day of festival games, archery, thrown weapons, rattan and rapier tournaments, classes, and a brewing competition. We will end the evening with a simple family-style outdoor feast. Check the event website for a schedule of activities and more information:

Missive from the Chronicler

As we move towards finding a (or several) new event sites, it is my hope that everyone continue to pitch in to help keep Oldenfeld events so successful. Perhaps Camp Warrior, under the same management as the previous Camp Indian Springs proves to be successful for us.

As we also move into a new Baronial polling time, it is also my hope that we continue to stay strong. I know this can be a stressful time for Oldenfeld, but we will get through it.

Now on to this missive. This newsletter represents Oldenfeld, and as such, I'd really love to feature more information about goings on around the group. Please drop me an email and give me some ideas what you'd love to see in the Oldenfeld newsletter.
