

Oldertales

Missive from your Baron and Baroness

Greetings unto the populace of Oldenfeld!

We bring news from the Kingdom: Trimaris has Heirs! Congratulations to Prince Franco and Princess Isabella! Vivat!

We also bear a request from Their Majesties, Danial and Ennelayne. They have asked the populace for donations to include in the Pennsic gift basket. Similar to the Gulf Wars gift basket, we assemble a basket for one other Kingdom, the name of which will be provided soon. Their Majesties have specifically requested blank scrolls and largesse. We know that we have many talented artisans in the Barony, and we look forward to putting together an awesome showcase of our artisans! We plan to focus the next few craft nights on scrolls, largesse, and silk banners for the gift basket as well.

Speaking of craft night, we would like to remind everyone that it will be moving to Wednesdays for at least the next six weeks, beginning May 30th.

Though we are entering the slow season of summer, it seems there's hardly a day of the week that we Oldenfelders aren't up to something. Fighter practice continues to be held at Tom Brown Park on most Sundays, and archery practice is hosted by Master Octavio and Mistress Mairi Ceilidh on Sunday afternoons. Lady Merewyn and Lord Kolbrandr recently volunteered to host ensemble practice in their home on Monday evenings. Thank you to both Octavio and Mairi Ceilidh and Kolbrandr and Merewyn for opening your homes (and yards!). And of course, we continue to hold business meetings on the first and third Thursday of each month, at the Lake Ella Publix.

We also would like to remind everyone that our annual Curia and revel will be held on July 22nd at the Unitarian universalist church in Tallahassee. This is an important meeting for the Barony, and we encourage everyone to attend. If anyone has specific topics to discuss, please submit them to the Seneschal, Honorable Lady Artemisia, prior to the event, if possible, so she can create an agenda.

Looking forward to seeing you at the next practice, meeting, or Curia!

Charles and Aurelia

Missive From Your Seneschal

Greetings to all!

I became your new Seneschal at Lion's Tourney last February. Since then, much has happened in the Land of Big Fun! Our Anniversary event marked a new chapter for Oldenfeld when Miklos von Baeker and Marie le Main, Baron and Baroness stepped down. We thank them for their four years of service to the Barony in which they spread the seeds of hospitality around our Kingdom and beyond. We welcome Charles Aston and Aurelia Cassia as our new Baron and Baroness and look forward to their successful reign in our wonderful Barony. I would like to thank the staff who put on Anniversary! It was a huge event which required many hands to make it as successful as it was. We had heat, sand and mosquito's to combat, but the staff did a great job. Thank you all who attended to make this day that much more special!

Our Curia event is coming in July and I encourage everyone to attend. This is our annual meeting, held indoors during the heat of summer while we are on break from our own events. This is an opportunity to discuss subjects that affect us as a Barony, including looking for venues to hold our events, officer positions and more, and it gives you a chance to have a voice. It will be held at the Universalist Unitarian Church, 2810 N. Meridian Road, Tallahassee on July 22. Our next event will be Panhandle Skirmishes to be held at Compass Lake in the Hills on September 15-17. But, during the summer months, work on your projects to get ready for upcoming events. You can do this at the project night, graciously hosted by Baron Charles and Baroness Aurelia at their home on Wednesday nights during June and July (please note this is a change from the previous Tuesday nights). To close, I would like to re-iterate what I saw in an earlier Oldentales from a previous Baron and Baroness which I feel is still important today, which stated that for the Barony to stay healthy, it requires growth. We must add members who we encourage to become contributing members, and we must recognize contributing members so that they become sustaining members. We have so many great members helping us put on events, who train members, and who encourage members whether it be through fighting, dance, sewing, cooking, scribal arts, children's activities and more. Let's keep ourselves excited about being productive members of Oldenfeld, Trimaris and the Society. Through our enthusiasm, let's recruit new people to participate in this great love of ours.

I hope to see you at Curia!

Yours in Service,
Artemisia Pennelli.
