Subject: Merchants wanted

Hello!

For those who merchant and can't or won't be attending Pennsic, you are invited to come and set up at "A Really, Really Boaring Event". First time for this site, the Lawnwood Park Hall and recreational park, the date is August 7th.

10 am to Midnight, at 7508 Jennings Way, Fort Pierce.

The Hall is air conditioned (thank goodness!) and there are large trees to provide shade. The event fee is $10 (non-members add $3) and the Tavern will be providing the food at a cost of $8.

Please contact the autocrat, Lady Godiva Longstaff (Fran Gruen) at (772)335-3392 with any questions or concerns. More information can be found at the web site

ARTISAN SEEKS OTHERS FOR BARTER

ISO embroiderers, leatherworkers, musicians, spinsters, other craftspeople who wish to barter their products. I'll trade cooking, sewing, calligraphy, illumination, fabric buttons for your cotehardies, and more. Let's re-create medieval commerce: no money needed. Contact Jen if interested.

Cooks' Guild Corner:

From Romas the Mapmaker, excerpted from his letter on the Oldenfeld-cooks group page, dated July 19, 2004.

At the last feast we decided we would try Viking foods next time. That will be on Sunday, July 25 at 5 pm at Jed's home. This will be the day after Mistress Mairi's Spanish foods workshop at Mission San Luis for their Volunteer Training meeting. I suspect we'll get a few of their more enthusiastic cooks coming to our Cooks Guild meeting the next day. If you want to come to the free workshop, send an email to the Volunteer Coordinator, Kelly Goddard, who put this in their Calendar for July:

We will have refreshments and cassina (instead of coffee), as well as a taste of everything that Mrs. Ter Louw "stews" up for us. It will really be a workshop focused on 17th century cooking techniques, and based on the foods we know were available here at Mission San Luis. If you are a cook, interested in cooking, or interested in tasting, you won't want to miss this fabulous demonstration. Please RSVP to Kelly by Tuesday, July 20 for reservations.

Bards' Corner

We've not heard from our A&S contenders on how they fared in Orlando. Would any of the participants care to write a short article for publication describing the proceedings at the Known World A&S Symposium?

Just a Bit of Trim

There are no entries this month for Sewing Guild. Will the responsible member contact the Chronicler if there are meetings scheduled that are open to the populace.
