

Oldentales

Missive from your Baron and Baroness

Greetings from Charles and Aurelia, Baron and Baroness of Oldentfeld!

War is almost upon us! Though there are only a few left between now and Gulf Wars, we will continue hosting Tuesday project nights, with a focus on war preparations! We will also be working on some items that can be donated to Volunteer Point for prizes. We encourage you to consider donating crafted or ready-made items from your stash as well. If you would like to donate but are unable to attend Gulf Wars this year, we would be happy to deliver the items for you!

And speaking of volunteering, have you filled out the volunteer information sheet for war yet? If not, please do so! There's no harm in filling the form out if you end up not volunteering or even attending war, but it makes the data entry process so much easier for the kind souls at Volunteer Point, who want to make sure each volunteer gets their prizes, and each group gets their share of the war profits. Remember, for every two hours of service at war, you will receive a raffle ticket. It's important that you collect your raffle tickets and turn the stubs in at Volunteer Point, as that's how the two war points for service are awarded. After you complete ten hours of service, you will also need to show us your raffle tickets to participate in the volunteer appreciation dinner, to be held in our camp on Thursday or Friday evening. We hope that EVERYONE from Oldentfeld will participate in this challenge to volunteer at least ten hours, and we look forward to serving a lot of steaks (or vegetarian equivalent...) to our populace!

Once we all return from war, there will be only a brief respite before Spring Coronation. To that end, we will be collecting items for a gift basket to present to Prince Baldar and Princess Brythwinn upon their Coronation. Should you wish to donate any items, please bring them to a business meeting or contact us.

Oldentfeld has a few events approaching that we would like to encourage everyone to attend. Our Anniversary will be held on the last Saturday in April. This usually ends the event season until the cooler (sometimes cooler, at least) temperatures of fall approach, but the Barony is doing things a bit differently this year! Our Lions Tourney event, normally held in February, and in competition with numerous other events and activities, will be held in July. This will be an entirely indoor, air-conditioned event. Hopefully we will be able to draw more participants from outside of the Barony, as it will be summer vacation and in competition with very few other events. We will probably try to coordinate crash space again for those who are planning to attend from outside our borders. Stay tuned for more information on that and the upcoming Curia/Revel.

Thank you all for your support of our Barony and Kingdom!

Vivat Trimaris! Hail Oldentfeld!
